SECTION C ☆☆☆

Online eats: October is National Popcorn Month, and Kernel Season's is on a mission to make sure it's celebrated with flavor. Run by U-M grad Brian Taylor, the online retailer's Web address says it all — www.nomore nakedpopcorn.com. There you'll find 10 varieties of gourmet popcorn seasonings — ranging from jalapeño, Parmesan and garlic, Cajun and barbecue to apple cinnamon and chocolate marshmallow — in addition to the Popcorn Fork, a great utensil that keeps fingers from getting all messy. Don't have a computer? The seasonings can be found at Meijer and Farmer Jack for about $2.99 each.
